Self Advocacy Resource and Technical Assistance Center
“Self-Advocacy and Beyond!”

Self Advocates Becoming Empowered (SABE), the oldest national self-advocacy organization in the country, has been awarded a grant from the Administration for Community Living to establish the first-ever National Resource Center for Self-Advocacy. The resource center is funded as a Project of National Significance by the Administration on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities under the Administration on Disabilities.

What is the name of SABE’s new Center?
Self Advocacy Resource and Technical Assistance Center (SARTAC)

What is the mission of SARTAC?
The mission of SARTAC is to strengthen the self-advocacy movement by supporting self advocacy organizations to grow in diversity and leadership.

What are the activities of the Center?

- Create and manage a website where self advocates can learn about the best ways to organize and support the self-advocacy community www.selfadvocacyinfo.org

- Communicate with the community through social media like Facebook and Twitter https://www.facebook.com/SARTAC1/

- Share best practice tools created by the Regional Self-Advocacy Technical Assistance Centers and by self-advocacy organizations and allies from across the nation

- Work with a 12 person Advisory Committee to review information created by the Center

- Write a paper, make a video and lead a webinar about the history of the self-advocacy movement
