

Nationwide, students of color and students with disabilities are suspended, expelled, separated from regular classrooms, and referred to legal authorities at much higher rates than their peers.

If you are concerned about your child for these reasons, come join our conversation in a safe place.

We are looking for solutions!

Focus Group for Parents

Working to end the school to prison pipeline

When: Saturday, October 26, 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Where: Columbia Public Library, 100 W. Broadway, Columbia

Who: Families, professional advocates, friends

More info?: Jeff Johnson, People First, 573-424-1744 or Mark Satterwhite, Boone County Family Resources, 573-874-1995

BOONE COUNTY
Family RESOURCES
THRIVE | CONNECT | ACHIEVE
Supporting individuals with developmental disabilities since 1976.